IPH appoints Tony O'Malley as new Managing Director and CEO

IPH Limited (IPH) is pleased to announce the appointment of Anthony (Tony) O'Malley as the Company's new Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer with effect from 1 July 2026.

Tony will succeed Dr Andrew Blattman who announced his intention to retire as MD & CEO in November 2025.

IPH Chairman, Peter Warne said: "Following a comprehensive global search, the Board is pleased to appoint Tony as our new CEO. His calibre and broad professional services experience position him well to lead the next phase of the Company's growth strategy."

"Tony is a highly experienced global professional services leader with over 30 years' experience. He has worked across the Big Four advisory firms at a global level, major law firms and large corporations in complex multi-jurisdictional and highly regulated environments. His extensive experience includes large-scale business transformation, particularly the early adoption and global rollout of AI-enabled legal technology".

Tony's most recent senior executive role was Global Legal Business Solutions Leader at PwC where he was responsible for a market-facing legal services business operating across more than 100 territories with ~4,000 employees. Earlier career roles include senior leadership positions, including Managing Partner at King & Wood Mallesons (now Mallesons) and Deputy General Counsel and Regulatory Counsel at Telstra.

He has extensive experience working with autonomous firms to create value through coordination, shared services and scale globally. He also has significant experience in technology-enabled service delivery, including leading the evaluation, pilot and global deployment of generative AI platforms within PwC's legal business, focused on improved client service, productivity, quality and economic impact.

Tony O'Malley said: "I am excited to join IPH at a pivotal point in its transformation. Under Andrew Blattman's leadership, IPH has built a leading position across international IP secondary markets, and I look forward to building on that platform to deliver further growth and shareholder returns."

Tony will commence in the role on 1 July 2026. Dr Blattman will continue to provide support to IPH for the period to 30 November 2026 at which time his employment with IPH will cease.

Peter Warne said: “Andrew has made an exceptional contribution to IPH over a remarkable 30-year career with the Group, including nine years as Managing Director & CEO. IPH has established itself as the market leader in international IP secondary markets under his leadership, with top practices in Australia, New Zealand, Canada, and Southeast Asia. We are pleased he will continue to support the Company through the CEO transition.”

A summary of the material terms of Mr O’Malley’s employment agreement is set out in the attached Appendix.
